Welcome!

OLLI @ CSU, Chico’s Fall 2015 term is a cultural feast that celebrates wide-ranging interests in history, literature, the natural and social sciences, fine arts, and current events. Whether it involves the discovery of your genealogical heritage or finding your singing voice, there is something for everyone at OLLI this fall.

If you like science, consider a course about modern science and the role ethics plays in the societal acceptability of new research. Interested in the arts? Two visiting artists will conduct OLLI-exclusive workshops through a partnership with Chico Performances. Or take a day trip to San Francisco to see the J.M.W. Turner exhibit at the de Young Museum.

Learn how five centuries of socio-political transformations have formed the foundation of modern society and can be mined for clues to today’s major social problems. Too heavy? Try relaxation techniques through meditation or reiki, or sign up for more than a dozen classes that take members into local parks and walking trails, or to a Sunday matinee.

There are several offerings that empower you to dive into your own creativity, whether it is writing memoir, painting, knitting, or using poetry to develop life-affirming contemplative practices.

Treat yourself to new experiences and delight in human creation. Now is the time to learn, play, and be an active part of OLLI’s extraordinary community.

YOU’RE INVITED!
