Refunds

Application fees are non-refundable. The Student Health Services fee is non-refundable. If you withdraw from ALCI on or before the first day of class, you are eligible for a full tuition refund minus a $10 processing fee. Be advised that the processing time for refunds is 2 to 3 weeks. A maximum of 65% of tuition is refunded if you withdraw during the first week of classes. No refund can be issued after the first Friday of the session.

Tuition is not refundable under the following circumstances:

- You have been expelled or disenrolled from ALCI
- Your attendance has caused you to lose your F-1 student status.

Extension of the Application / Re-issuance of Form I-20

Sometimes a student needs to postpone his or her attendance at ALCI and be sent a revised I-20. There is a $75 reactivation fee for all students who request a deferral to a different session. An updated financial certificate may be required.

1. You should return the unused I-20 and indicate in writing which session you plan to attend.
2. You may postpone your enrollment twice per application fee. If you decide to postpone your enrollment a third time, you must pay the application fee again.

Please note:

1. The application fee is non-refundable under any circumstance.
2. If five or more sessions (from your initial enrollment date) pass before you actually enroll, you will be required to submit a new application form and a new bank statement, and pay the application fee again (even if this is the first "extension").
