

Intro to Practical Beekeeping

Curious about bees and beekeeping?

Interested in a bee hive and need help to get it started?

Already have a hive and want some practical advice?

Intro to Practical Beekeeping is designed for YOU! The workshop is hands-on, using live bee hives in demonstrations to provide you with practical, hands-on skills.

Instructor Kevin Ward is a beekeeper with a lifetime of experience managing beehives and keeping bees for pollination, queen rearing, and honey production. He'll be joined by a guest speaker with expertise in keeping hives healthy.

Learn All the Buzz About...

- ▶ How to install a hive
- ▶ Capturing a swarm
- ▶ Managing a hive
- ▶ How to sustain a hive through the seasons
- ▶ And more!

The Details

- ▶ When: Saturdays, May 6 & 13, 10:00AM—Noon
- ▶ Where: The University Farm
- ▶ Cost: $50
- ▶ Participants must bring their own bee veil and gloves. A hive tool is also recommended.

Join Us!

The workshop is limited to 20 participants. Sign up soon to guarantee your space.

Register Today!

California State University Chico
Professional & Continuing Education

rce.csuchico.edu/practical-beekeeping

