CESAR CHAVEZ DAY OBSERVED APRIL 1

No OLLI Classes this Monday, April 1 in observance of Cesar Chavez Day

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING APRIL 17, 11:30AM – 1PM

Please join us for a light lunch, to mingle with friends, and to learn more about key issues facing OLLI this year. We’ll follow with a deeper discussion on where we’re headed and how best to get there.

An Invitation from Ann

OLLI’s annual business meeting offers members a forum for understanding how OLLI operates. Did you know, for example, that membership fees cover only half of OLLI expenses? Do you know the actual cost per member for running OLLI is $250? Are you aware that office volunteers alone have provided more than 1,200 service hours so far this year?

In addition to a budget review, the Town Hall-style forum will include discussion about the future direction of OLLI. In honor of this year’s 30th anniversary celebration, Advisory Council Chairman William Tefteller will engage the audience in composing birthday wishes for OLLI’s next 30 years. These future “wishes” will be factored into the program’s five-year strategic plan, for which this year’s goals—and progress towards those goals—will also be highlighted.

Knowing where we’re going, and gaining member input along the way, help ensure OLLI can deliver the types of programming that make it special. We look forward to sharing our plans with you, and we’re especially eager to hear your thoughts and wishes. See you on April 17!

SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION FOR OLLI PEER LEADERS

Share a few nice words about a peer leader who made a difference this year

Our volunteer instructors spend considerable time and expend significant energy in order to create OLLI classes for you. Some of the classes require hours of preparation; all require thought and dedication. Do you have some words of appreciation you’d like to direct to a particular peer leader(s)? Your comments will be shared at the spring appreciation luncheon held in honor of our 2018-19 instructors. To submit comments, use the “Have Something to Share?” link at the bottom of this bulletin or email the OLLI office at olli@csuchico.edu. Our Spring Luncheon will be held May 8 at Canyon Oaks Country Club. Sign-ups start April 12. Details to follow.
