

FACULTY-LED SUMMER 2022

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

Florence, Italy: Arts and Ideas- Renaissance to Modern in Italy

Travel Dates:

June 26–July 16*

Earn 3 Units!

The program will cover major historical events, figures, and cultural developments from the Renaissance and Reformation of the 15th and 16th centuries to the end of the 20th century. In addition, the course will give particular attention to religion and philosophy, politics, literature, architecture, music, and art. Students will develop an appreciation of the “big questions” that have occupied the West for the past 600 years; develop an appreciation of historical and critical perspective in the study of culture; and sharpen their reading, critical thinking, writing, notetaking, web searching, and study skills.
