

FACULTY-LED SUMMER 2022

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

Reggio Emilia, Italy: International Adapted Physical Education

Travel Dates: June 3–July 1*
Earn 3 Units!

This program allows students to participate and engage in an adapted physical education camp, including adventures with hiking, swimming, kayaking, rock climbing and much more! Work hands on with teens and young adults with physical and developmental disabilities in the context of a different country. Focus is on promoting physical activity and sport to individuals with disabilities. Students will plan and implement a variety of physical activity lessons for students from a different country. A “universal design” to instruction will be implemented to insure students of all abilities and languages will be included.
