This program is a partnership with Universidad San Francisco de Quito (USFQ), the first private university of Ecuador. Students will take a course on indigenous literature of the Americas co-taught by two Chico State professors and a course on Ecuadorian culture taught by a USFQ faculty member. You will stay with a host family and participate in several excursions in and around Quito.

Tours & Excursions

In addition to class studies, students will participate in guided tours of:

- Quito’s Historic Center
- Middle of the World
- Capilla del Hombre, Guayasamin Museum
- Otavalo
- Quilotoa Lake
- Salasaca Community

Coursework

ENGL 353: Multicultural Literature: Issues and Themes ~ Inter-American Indigenous Literature
LAST 357: Lands and Peoples of Latin America or LAST 398 Special Topics ~ Ecuadorian Art & Culture

Fulfill multiple requirements in just five weeks!

- 6 upper division GE credits (Global Development Studies pathway)
- 3 units global cultures
- 3 units US diversity
- 3 writing intensive (W-2) units
- 6 units toward a Latin American Studies major or minor
- 3 units toward an English major or minor

For details & application info visit: rce.csuchico.edu/passport/ecuador