Wine Tasting at LaRocca Vineyards Tasting Room ~ Phaedra LaRocca

Nestled in the northern region of the Sierra Foothills on Doe Mill Ridge, overlooking Butte Creek Canyon, LaRocca Vineyards is where the southern butte of the Cascade Mountains meets the Sierra Nevada Mountains at the base of Mt. Lassen.

Trumping our prestigious geographical location is our organic farming practices. We proudly honor the alchemy of our habitat, the soil, butterflies, frogs, bees, earthworms, owls, birds, and most of all the vinifera. We will be learning about and tasting their delicious certified organic wines.

Climate Change: The Science, Effects, and Future ~ Gordon Gregory

The first day will focus on the science of climate change: how we know it's happening, its current and future effects, and what we can do to reduce the risks. The second day will be a discussion about how warming temperatures drive wildfire, particularly in our region.

Lunch Around the World ~ Susan Levine

Four restaurants and four cuisines in four weeks. Maybe we'll go to your favorite or maybe you'll try something new. The emphasis will be on enjoying food as we make new friends in OLLI.

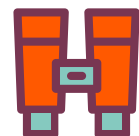

Local Author Lecture Series ~ Gayle Womack & Debbie Vermette

Come hear from local authors who will tell about what led them to write their book(s), their writing experiences, and how the publications came about. Q&A will follow each presentation.

OLLI Hikers: Birding Hike to Cub-Butt Divide ~ Lorraine Smith & Vickie Stoll

This moderate 4.3-mile hike with 650 feet of elevation gain will be of special interest to beginning and intermediate birders. Our path will follow the Pacific Crest Trail into fir forest, then onto the ridge between Cub and Butt Creeks. Along our route, we'll take time to spot and identify birds (and wildflowers) and to enjoy a variety of landscapes. 360-degree views will be a highlight. From our lunch spot atop the ridge we'll have beautiful views of Mt. Lassen. Our pace will be leisurely, with time to take photographs, observe and identify birds, and enjoy views. Bring your binoculars!

Soil Health: The Mystery Under Our Feet ~ Richard Roth

Science and Technology are revealing a wonderLAND under our feet that we have only begun to understand or explore. But we can begin now to feed the mystery that lies in the center of meeting the food and climate challenges presented by a growing population and climate change. This class explores these new discoveries and technologies while presenting things we can do in our own yards, gardens, farms, and ranches that brightens the futures for all young people.

Acrylic Painting ~ Christine Mac Shane

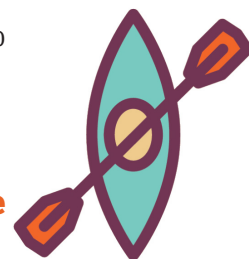

Hands-on classes for both beginning- and intermediate-level artists using acrylic paint and mixed medias that introduces the beginner painter (and refreshes the seasoned artist) to the medium. We will look at composition, color choices, color mixing and technique in relation to choice of subject.

Aviation History at the Chico Air Museum ~ Gary Hendrickson

Learn some aviation history at the Chico Air Museum! In the first class we'll talk about the museum and its place in Chico's aviation history. A field trip to the museum on a future Thursday will be scheduled.

People, Passion, Performance: The Power of Nonprofit Leadership ~ Janet Rechtman

Nonprofit leaders occupy unique positions in unique fields. Laden with constantly changing—and challenging—demands, today's nonprofits sustain their work through resourceful, resilient and visionary leadership. This one day leadership development workshop can help current and aspiring nonprofit leaders deepen their understanding of the nonprofit community and how best to advance missions that matter.

Kayaks and Stand-up Paddle Boards ~ Pamela Waldsmith

Kayaking is enjoyed by a wide variety of people who love the water, exercise, wildlife, enjoying friends, and just being in the outdoors. We'll spend the day kayaking at the Forebay Aquatic Center in Oroville. You'll also have a chance to try out SUPs (Stand Up Paddle Boards)! All equipment will be provided for just $15 and you should have ample time to practice your paddling, enjoy the outdoors and some fun exercise in for the day!

plus some old and soon-to-be OLLI favorites!
